Letter No. 1501 dated 7th September 1903 from the Comptroller, Mysore Dist., relative to the rank and status of Mr. Vainapurichetty Chief Assistant to the Comptroller.

The Comptroller states that he hopes that in appointing Mr.
M. N. Krishna Rao as 2^d Asst.
Comptroller it was not the intention of Govt. to raise the rank of that officer over that of Mr.
Vainapurichetty. He states that the latter officer, ~~who was~~ one of the fittest officers in independent charge of an important branch of his office, was helping him with all his energy & capacity in carrying out the reforms suggested by Mr. Toddouph, that Mr. Vainapurichetty is better qualified to replace Mr. Eagles when the time arrives than Mr. Krishna Rao.

however superior the latter officers' University Educational Qualifications may be. The system of recruitment of account Officers was introduced only six years ago & did not contemplate any supersession but only gradual replacement of the sagotted officers in the Dept^{ts}. that Therefore it would be unfair to deny Mr. K. Chetty at the tail end of ^{his} Service, the rank and status & prospects which he would naturally look forward but for the new system of recruitment.

The Comptroller suggests that if you desire that all the sagotted officers in his office should be styled Assistant Comptrollers, Mr. Eagles may be styled Senior Asst^{nt} Comptroller Mr. Vyapuri Chetty & Mr. Krishna Rao 1st and 2^d Assistant Comptrollers.

An application from Mr. Vyapuri Chetty is also sent.

Yours faithfully
The Secretary

Office of the Comptroller,

Mysore Government,

Bangalore, Dated 7th September 1933.

From

E. R. Subrajer, Esq., B.A., B.C.E.

Comptroller of Mysore.

To

M. V. Nanjundaiah, Esq., B.A., B.L.

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit for favourable consideration and orders of Government a letter from Mr. Vyapary Chetty, Chief Assistant in my office.

2. In appointing Account Probationer Mr. K. Krishna Rao as 2nd Assistant Comptroller I confidently hope that Government did not intend that either the rank and status of Mr. Vyapary Chetty or his claims for promotion to higher grades of office in the Account Department should be inferior to those of the former officer.

3. Having had a close personal knowledge of Mr. Vyapary Chetty's work in the office for the past ten years during which, during which period he, as one of the Gazetted Officers in independent charge of an important branch of the office, helped me with all his energy and capacity to carry out the numerous reforms suggested by Mr. Jiddulph, I have no hesitation to add to the excellent testimony of his merits borne by late Sir K. Sheshadri Iyer, Mr. Jiddulph and Mr. Kiernander and to state with confidence that, from his long and varied experience in, and intimate knowledge of, the various branches of accounts of this office, he will certainly be better qualified to replace Mr. Staples when the time arrives, than Mr. Krishna Rao however superior the latter officer's University educational qualifications may be.

4. The system of recruitment of Account Officers under which Mr. Krishna Rao was appointed was introduced only about six years ago and did not, I can state from personal knowledge, contemplate any severance but only gradual replacement of the Gazetted gazetted officers already in the department.

5. I therefore venture to submit that it would be unfair if Mr. Vyapury Chetty be denied, at the tail end of his service, the rank, status and prospects which, but for the new system of recruitment he might naturally look forward to in the usual course and which had not been hitherto denied but are still continued to the old officers in the Civil Service even though the system of recruitment for that service was similarly changed 12 years ago.

6. If Government consider it desirable that all the gazetted officers in this office should be styled Assistant Comptrollers I beg leave to suggest that Mr. Charles may be styled Senior Assistant Comptroller, Mr. Vyapury Chetty & Mr. Krishna Rao 1st and 2nd Assistant Comptrollers.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Comptroller.

B.V.U.

To

The Comptroller to the Government of His Highness
the Maharajah of Mysore.

Sir,

I respectfully beg to submit these few lines for your favourable consideration.

2. Originally the Chief Assistant was the only Assistant to the Comptroller, and almost all the duties now performed by the Assistant Comptroller were performed by that Officer.
Subsequently in 1891 as the office was enlarged by the constitution of some more departments i.e. Local Funds, Excise, Loans & Insurance, the post of Assistant Comptroller was created, and Mr. Pagels and late Mr. Barrow, who rose like myself from lower ranks, were appointed to these posts, myself succeeding Mr. Barrow as Manager on Rs. 250/- . In 1895-96 one more Assistant was found necessary, and I was appointed as one of the Assistants on a salary of Rs. 350/- but some difficulty arose in giving me some suitable designation as there were already two Assistants bearing different designations. However as the Probationers' scheme was just then sanctioned, and as it was also contemplated to designate them as Superintendents I was designated as Chief Superintendent, pending final settlement of the proposals re the prospects and status of the officers in the Financial Department. Subsequently as Mr.
Barrow died in 1900, the Government was pleased to appoint me in his room as Chief Assistant on a salary of Rs. 350 to 450/- and abolished the post of Chief Superintendent, as by that time the Account Probationers were available for service in the office, and as they were proposed to be appointed as Assistants to the Comptroller with some increase of pay - vide Comptroller G.O. dated 15th July 1900 to Government. Thus two Assistants
1 Assistant Comptroller (pay Rs. 500)
1 Chief Assistant to Comptroller (pay Rs. 450) have been permanently attached to the office since 1901.

3. In distributing the office work, you have always been been kind enough to entrust me also with some important branch which are generally held by Deputy and Principal Assistant in British Account Offices

4- In these circumstances Government could not have ever intended that the rank and status of Account Probationers should after their appointment to graded service, be above that of the Chief Assistant, as it is clearly mentioned in para 4 Clause 4 of Government Proclamation ⁷⁴⁵¹⁰ ~~76349~~ dated 20th Nov/46 that they should on passing the required Examination be entrusted with the duties of Superintendents who are only upper subordinates in British Account Offices with some suitable designation. If they really intended that they should have higher status, they would have at once ordered that they should be designated as Assistant Comptroller.

In all the correspondence relating to Account Probationers, they were proposed to be designated as Assistant to the Comptroller, and even in the case of Mr. Krishna Rao your recommendation was to appoint him as Assistant to The Comptroller and not as Assistant Comptroller. I was therefore all the time under the impression that I stood next to Mr. Charles, and I would succeed him when he retires. Government have however been pleased to appoint Account Probationer Mr. Krishna Rao as Second Assistant Comptroller. Though his maximum pay is less than mine, doubts have arisen not only in my mind, but also in the Gazette & Audit branch of the office as to my relative rank and status in regard to this new appointment.

5- I have served in this Office in different capacities and rendered nearly 30 years' service. The Government were all along pleased to recognize my services and to advance me as I deserved. Yourself and your predecessors had also the kindness to report favourably on the value of my services, and to bring my claims to the notice of Government whenever there was occasion for the same. The Government also have always held me in some estimation as testified to by the following opinion recorded by late Sir C. Cheshabadi Iyer: "Mr. Vyapuri Sahay is highly deserving of the recommendation made. He is a very valuable Account Officer, and the improvement of his status status is necessary. Mr. Macauliffe, the Deputy Auditor General of the Government of India, who has audited the Accounts of the State for over four years, was also pleased to bring my name to the favourable and special notice of Government. Mr. Macauliffe has also left with me a record of his favourable opinion of my merits and capacity as an Account Officer.

In these circumstances, I request that you will be so good as to submit my case to Government with such recommendation as you may think proper in view to have my rank and status settled beyond all doubt.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Mr Vaipayari Chetty
and Mr Krishna Rao
1st and 2^d Assistant Comptrollers.

Mr. Vaipayari Chetty's position is uninterfered with. He is still left as Chief Assistant to the Comptroller. Mr. Eagles and Mr Krishna Rao are Asst Comptrol.

The promotion of these Officers depends upon the circumstances of the time and the view Govt will take of their competency;
More than this it is
